Special Recognition

The 1967-68 Yearbook Staff, on behalf of the Administration, Faculty, and Student Body, would like to present as a small token of gratitude this "Special Recognition" to our dean of American History, Miss Lucy-Jean Titsworth. Miss "T" has devoted her past fourteen years in service to Algonac High School. During this time, she has been class advisor for three of the graduating classes.

Miss "T" is one of the most qualified members of our faculty. She has majored in American History and minored in English. She has also been experienced in special education.

Miss "T" plans to retire at the end of this year. We will all miss her approving gestures and competent advice. We extend to you, Miss "T", our sincere wishes for happiness in the years to come.

In 1964 Algonac High School students found themselves leaving the halls and classrooms of the building constructed in 1922 to attend the contemporary school building in Pte. Tremble. This long-awaited exodus was not as delightful as hoped. The "old school" meant much more to the faculty and students than just academic learning. It was where the Seniors spent hours toiling for their play and the Juniors prepared for their prom. It was where laughter flourished and smiles were abundant. It was where many young romances began and were terminated. So, naming the school was meaningful.

As a dedication to the late Roy T. Gilbert, our "old school" was named Gilbert Junior High School. For 53 years, Mr. Gilbert served on the Board of Education, 42 years of which he held the Office of Secretary. His aims were directed toward the education of the community children. His work extended not only locally, but also statewide. Besides having held the Office of President of both the Rotary Club and the Community Chest, he was elected to the State Legislature. This dedication cannot thoroughly express our appreciation to Mr. Gilbert.

"The learning of today solves the problems of tomorrow."

So words the motto of the class of 1968. After commencement ceremonies in June, 145 graduates will leave a memorable institution and four unforgettable years.

First there was our Freshman year during which Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors took delight in buying a slave for a day.

Our Sophomore year was filled with preparations for dances and magazine sales.

Then there was our Junior year when committees for the J-Hop needs filling and the Junior-Senior Banquet came all too soon.

Finally, came our Senior year when the time passed by before we began to realize its true value. Our final year found us preparing for a play, a Senior Trip and graduation ceremonies.

"Let's see now, . . . if I throw it at a 45° 3' angle it should make it!"

"How's the weather, Mike?"

"I get 'em!"

The Student Council annually presents the Senior-Faculty Game. Students contributed a quarter to watch the Seniors match the faculty. The proceeds replenish the Flower Fund.

This year's game was highlighted by the presence of one scene-stealing counselor, Mr. McLeod. Another attraction was the debut of Mr. Treppa on the basketball court.

The faculty won the game with the score of 43 to 37.

"See that basket, see that ball, come on . . ."

"Up, up, and away . . ."

SPORTS

1967-68 proved to be a most rewarding year for the Algonac Muskrats.

In the spring of 1967, the baseball team held a record of ten wins and one loss to claim the S.C.A.A. championship.

The football team began the new academic year in the fall of 1967 by remaining undefeated and sharing the league championship with Port Huron Catholic.

In the winter, the basketball team found itself in a tight competition with several spirited teams for the championship. With seven wins and five losses, the basketball team held a close third place in the league ranking.

The Algonac Muskrats, coached by Dick Garrett and Rod Greenwood, ended their 1967-68 season by defeating St. Clair and sharing the S.C.A.A.L. Championship with PHC. By winning six and tying two, the Muskrats remained undefeated, a record unmatched by any of the nineteen class B schools in the area.

The Muskrats were favored in the selection of the All League teams. The choices for the League team were: Jeff Johnson (off.), Bill Siegel (def.), Fred Zelenock (def.), and Ray Meldrum (off., def.). Choices for the second team were: Fred Zelenock (off.), and Larry Thueme (off.). Honorable Mention was given to Leo DeMars, Dave Badovinac, Tony Meldrum, Rick Johnson, and Larry Furtah.

The school congratulates the entire team for a great season.

There's always some action on the sideline.

ACADEMICS

During the past four and one-half decades, the faculty of Algonac High School has increased from a mere five to the present thirty-six. Back in 1922 when the school began one of the five included the superintendent who was also the science teacher.

The Board of Education has also grown until today there are seven members of the district serving the schools of Algonac.

Students and faculty join us in complimenting Mrs. Stringer and her staff for the fine lunches served this year. Not only did they serve superior daily lunches, but they also prepared many special dinners and teas for the administration, faculty, and various organizations.

ACTIVITIES

Since the beginning of the Algonac Community Schools, various student organizations have been successful in conducting extracurricular activities. In the early 1900's such clubs as Hi Y, Girl Scouts, and Boy Scouts were organized and affiliated with the school. Since that time, more clubs were established for specialized fields. Among these are Latin Club, Library Club, Future Medics, Future Teachers, Varsity Club, Glee Club, Girls' Athletic Association, and Honor Society.

Student Council

President Larry Thueme and Norbert.

A popular figure at Algonac High this year is our foreign-exchange student, Norbert Sturm. Born and raised near Kiel, Germany, a large seaport on the Baltic Sea, he lives with his parents, his brother, Gernot, and his grandparents.

While attending school here, he is staying with the Stuart Morrison family in Algonac.

Besides studying (?), Norbert enjoys basketball, baseball, and strawberry sundaes at the Dairy Queen. As a member of our track team, he runs the two-mile.

Upon returning to his home town in Germany, Norbert will have to spend a year and a half in the German Army. He has two more years of high school and five years of college. After graduation, he would like to go into journalism or be a lawyer.

Someday, Norbert would like to return to the United States and, hopefully, to Algonac.

Student Council

Our weekly meeting.

"Should we or shouldn't we?"

Once again Student Council took the lead role in conducting student life in A. H. S. Under the guidance of Mr. Johnson and Miss Nugent, Student Council was successful in conducting opening day assemblies, locker clean-up, dances and other activities.

This year, Student Council strived for effectiveness not only in conducting activities, but also in solving faculty and student differences.

Larry Thueme served as a very efficient President this year. Other officers were: Jeff Lewis, Vice President; Pat Moran, Secretary, and Peg Halverson, Treasurer.

Everybody say cheese!

Among the outstanding organizations at Algonac High School is the Senior High Band under the direction of Mr. George Appelman. During the past school year the marching band provided several entertaining half-time shows at the football games. In May the concert band participated in the County Band Festival at Port Huron.

In December, they gave a Christmas Concert which both faculty and students enjoyed. The band closed their busy year with a spring concert and parades. Also they sponsored the Annual Donation Dinner.

On Wednesday of Spirit Week, Student Council organized a very successful Spirit Assembly. Each class presented a skit pertaining to Homecoming or football. Thursday, the student body wore maize and blue ribbons. Friday, October 20, was the big day, Color Day. School colors were worn by the both faculty and students. Mums were sold by the Sophomores. During the last hour, the pep band led an original mini-parade through our halls to the pep assembly in the gymnasium.

Throughout the week, posters had been displayed in the cafetorium. At the assembly, judges announced Eileen Misany as first place winner of the poster contest. For their participation throughout the whole week, the Seniors won the Spirit Jug. Friday night, with excitement high in the air, Mr. Johnson crowned Paula Goltz our 1967 Homecoming Queen. Mr. William Goltz, President of Rotary Club, presented his daughter with the cape and followers.

Our cheerleaders are always full of excitement.

Mr. Johnson gets the honor of crowning our queen.

Pres. of Rotary Club gladly puts the cape on his daughter.

Queen Paula.

J-Hop

The Algonac High School Cafetorium took on a new atmosphere the night of January 26, 1968. The annual J-Hop was presented by the Class of '69 and the theme was "Latin Quarter."

Mike Sutton and Sue Kilgore were the Co-chairmen. The credit for Can-Can girls, murals, the Eiffel tower, and fountain goes to the decoration committee headed by Rick Tringali. Other chairmen were: Band, Karen Christy; Refreshments, Nancy Gillert; Tickets-Advertising, Peg Halverson.

Mothers helped, too.

The Lee Vi's helped to make the night a success.

Two couples sit this one out.

"They could have danced all night."

It's fun after, too!

Senior Play

The Class of '68 presented the mystery-comedy, "If A Body Meet A Body." Miss Lois Kingsbury directed the play, and the cast consisted of:

Sue Ann Kendall
Priscilla Jones
Cam Crawford
Mr. Hatcher
Owen Barnes
Mrs. Reilly
Sonia
Henry Reilly
Lieutenant DeVille
Officer Connelly
Delivery Man
Stage Directors

Pam Chesney
Wendy Werner

Norbert Sturm
John Wichmann
Sharon Graebert
Paula Goltz
Jim Nugent
Mike Morrison
Harry Solomon
Bill Siegel
Pam Goltz, Gary Tweddle

Cam, Prissy, and Sue Ann await interrogation by Lt. DeVille.

DeVile questions Cam.

The stage directors help with makeup.

Miss Kingsbury receives a corsage from the cast.

Mrs. Reilly and nephew Henry chat with Owen Barnes.

A dead (?) Mr. Hatcher is found in the dumb waiter.

Yearbook Staff

"Smile, Karen!"

"No, absolutely not!"

"You've got to be kidding!"

The 1968 Yearbook has been the result of a group of four Seniors and one Junior working many hours to compose a memory book.

Our Editor-in-Chief this year was Paula Goltz, with Karen Cooper, Assistant Editor; Sandi Long, Organizations Editor; Pat Moran, Copy Editor; and Mary Nugent, Sports Editor. Miss Patricia Riley was our new advisor.

A selection of cover designs was presented to the Senior class and voted upon. They chose John Cartwright's design.

Yes, we were the ones who caught you off guard in a picture.

"What a burden!"

"I want this yellow . . ."

UNDERCLASSMEN

Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors—without them there would be no Seniors, for there would be no school.

Although a yearbook places emphasis on Seniors, we cannot forget those who will follow—the future Seniors.

Underclassmen play an important role in the school too. Each class has a definite part to perform in the development of the school academically and socially, individually and as a group.

First there's the Juniors who are anxiously pushing toward their Senior year. It is to this class that the whole school, and seniors in particular, say, "thank you" for the J-Hop and Junior-Senior Banquet.

Next come the Sophomores. They have their magazine sale and after-game concessions and dances to build up their treasury. During this year they have conferences with counselors and parents to help plan their classes for the next two years.

Last but not least we have the Freshmen. They spend a lot of time just getting used to high school and their new routine. They, too, have after-game concessions and dances to prepare them for their remaining years in high school.

Yes, the underclassmen form an important nucleus in our school. To you, the Seniors say best of luck in your remaining years at Algonac High School.

HAPPINESS is celebrating Norb's birthday.

SECURITY is having an add-a-class.

INTELLIGENCE is knowing the solar system.

FRUSTRATION is having a late bus.

When I found that I was to be editor of the 1968 Algonquin, I had no idea of what I was getting into. Many times during the year, the staff and I never thought we would make it. Now, after meeting deadlines, taking hundreds of pictures, composing a lot of copy, having many moments of frustration, hours of work, and a lot of fun, we have seventy-two completed pages.

I would like to thank all of our amateur photographers who are responsible for candid pictures. I also am grateful to the members of the faculty for their patience and cooperation during the year.

The staff and I hope you will enjoy this book and that it will remind you in the future of the great school year of 1967-68.

Sincerely,

Paula Goltz
